Q12 - Comments:

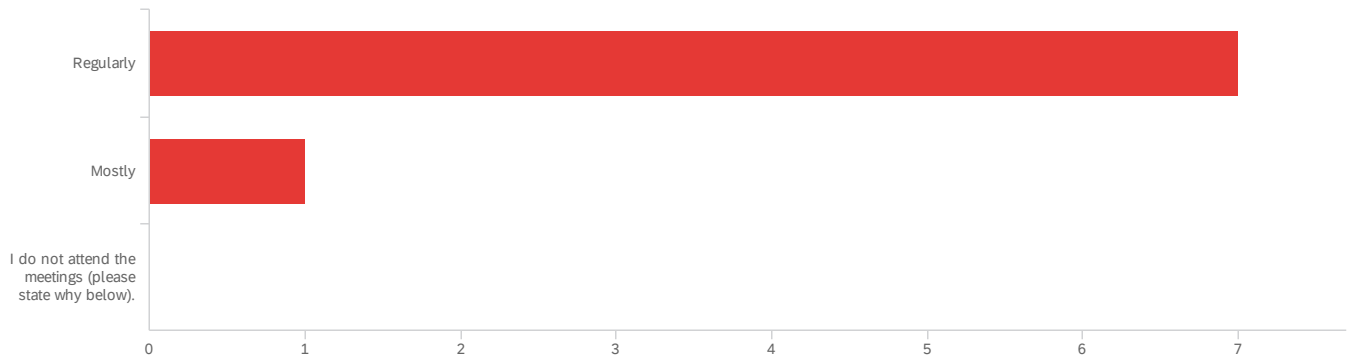

Comments:

The calendar is presented to the committee to review for typos or possible conflicts. There's usually not many, if any, changes made once it gets to the committee. It would be nice to have time (at least a week) to review the calendar with other members in the department before the committee meets.

I feel like there are changes to the calendar that happen and the committee is not a part of the discussion. I understand sometimes the change is necessary due to contractual obligations but at times it changes and I do not feel like the committee is notified that change is being made so those of those that have to make adjustments in our own schedules do not find until much later and have to scramble to fix things on our side.

I feel that this committee should meet more often; Sometimes it feels as though decisions are already made and input from representatives is limited
